2014
Scholarship Application

Deadline: April 18th, 2014

Since its founding in 2004, the Middletown Education Collaborative is, and has been, comprised solely of volunteers from the Middletown community. Community service and volunteerism are close to our hearts, and we are committed to encouraging and recognizing community service.

For this reason, among others, Middletown Education Collaborative will award a One Thousand Dollar ($1000) one-time scholarship to a graduating senior from Middletown High School. The student who receives this scholarship will be active in community service, and will be continuing their education at an institute of higher education.

Please remember that the following criteria must be met:

1. Applicant must be graduating from Middletown High School, Middletown, RI in June 2014;
2. Applicant must have a history of community service;
3. Applicant must be continuing his/her education at an accredited university, college, community college, trade school, vocational or technical school in the Fall of 2014.
4. Applicant must include two (2) Letters of Recommendation:
    - At least one of the letters or recommendation MUST be from an organization with which the candidate has volunteered that demonstrates a commitment to community service, past and present.
    - The other may be from another organization or one of the candidate's teachers.
5. Family members of MEC Board of Directors are not eligible to apply.
6. Scholarship amount is $1000 to be paid to the accredited institution.
7. Application deadline is Friday, April 18th, 2014.

The Application and Letters of Recommendation must be mailed to: MEC, P.O. Box 4975, Middletown, RI 02842 and postmarked by Friday, April 18th, 2014.
